Horning, Norfolk Broads (Night) Horning is a pretty village with a good Saxon name, well flavoured with antiquity and picturesquely supplied with a river-front of quaint houses straggling along the flat bank. An old windmill stands behind like a giant sentinel, on duty against the noise and turmoil of the new generation.

Dear Dolly, I am so sorry to have to put off your coming in to see me until next week instead, of tomorrow night. We are having friends on Fri. morn. & we find there is a good deal to do tomorrow. I do hope you will forgive me, but I want you in here next week. I shall come & meet you tomorrow morn. if possible. Best love
 Rose.
